Ensemble Cymru, who do so much to promote chamber music in North Wales, bring us a programme of joyous music that will delight both afficionados, and those who are new to the genre. The evening will commence with a performance of Mozart's Quintet in Eb major for Piano and Winds, K.452, which Mozart himself described at the time as 'the best thing I have written in my life'. Glinka's Trio Pathétique for Clarinet, Bassoon and Piano in D minor, GIV173, will follow. Its title is misleading, as this is a genial rather than a tragic work. Beethoven's magisterial Quintet for Piano and Winds in Eb major, Op.16, will bring the evening to a triumphant conclusion.

Cyflwyna Ensemble Cymru, sydd yn gwneud cymaint i hyrwyddo cerddoriaeth siambr yng Ngogledd Cymru, raglen o gerddoriaeth lawen fydd yn apelio i arbenigwyr ac hefyd i'r rhai sydd yn dod at y genre am y tro cyntaf. Agorir y noson gyda pherfformiad o'r Pumawd yn Eb fwyaf i Biano a Chwyth, K.452, gan Mozart. Wedyn mi fyddwn yn clywed y Triawd Pathétique i Glarinet, Baswn a Phiano yn D leiaf, GIV173, gan Glinka. THE MARIAN CONSORT
Rory McCleery – Director
'Miserere'

To mark the tenth anniversary of the formation of the consort, ten performers present paired settings of two of the most emotionally charged sacred texts of the Christian tradition. Allegri's wonderful 'Miserere', considered by many to be the most sublime setting of a sacred text, is contrasted with James MacMillan's highly personal response to this prayer in the composer's idiosyncratic and moving style. Palestrina's magisterial double-choir 'Stabat Mater' is heard alongside a fresh response to the emotional depths of this extraordinary text from one of the UK's foremost choral composers, Gabriel Jackson.

I ddathlu deg mlynedd er pan ffurfwyd y Consort, bydd deg o berfformwyr yn cyflwyno gosodiadau cyferbyniol o ddau o'r testunau cysegredig mwyaf emosiynol o'r traddodiad Cristionogol. Bydd 'Miserere' gwych Allegri yn cael ei gyferbynu gydag ymateb hynod bersonol y cyfansoddwr James MacMillan i'r weddi. Clywir hefyd gosodiad gogoneddus a theimladwy Palestrina o'r 'Stabat Mater' ochr yn ochr ag ymateb newydd i ddwyster y testun hwn gan un o gyfansoddwyr corawl mwyaf blaenllaw Prydain, Gabriel Jackson.

Sarah Brandwood Spencer – Violin
Simon Gilks – Violin
Tom Beer – Viola
Raymond Lester – Viola
Adam Szabo – Cello
Naomi Atherton – French Horn

This year, this dynamic Manchester-based ensemble bring us two contrasting works. Stanford's little known Fantasy for Horn and String Quartet, written in 1922, is a dramatic, compelling and flawlessly written work, and is eminently worthy of performance. In contrast Mozart's String Quintet in C major, K.515, is one of the cornerstones of the repertoire, and is particularly known for its extended first movement.

Eleni, mae'r ensemble deinamig yma o Fanceinion yn dod â dau gyfansoddiad cyferbyniol atom. Mae'r Ffantasi i Gorn a Phedwarawd Llinynnol gan Stanford, a ysgrifenwyd ym 1922, yn waith dramatig ac yn llawn haeddu cael ei berfformio. Mae'r Pumawd Llinynnol yn C fwyaf, K.515, gan Mozart, ar y llaw arall, yn un o gonglfeini'r repertoire, ac yn adnabyddus yn arbennig am ei symudiad cyntaf estynedig.
